Affected version:
Description: It finally is making it into the Redmine upstream (in steps, but nevertheless, it is moving ahead):
The real power of workflows
- the ability to show/hide certain fields depending on the status of an issue and/or role of the user
- the ability to secure(read-only/read-write) certain fields depending on the status of an issue and/or role of the user
- the ability to enforce(make mandatory) certain fields depending on the status of an issue and/or role of the user see :
