Affected version:
Description:	The feature requested for redmine "here": http://www.redmine.org/issues/2715 would be great. The best sentence that describes this is: "It would be handy to have a simple way to refer to a note on the current issue other than writing "see note 24" or making a full URL link."

Thanks for your report. However, this is an exact duplicate of #218 (and incidentally, you even used the exact same subject)
