

ChiliProject - Bug # 779: HTML comments not allowed on textile blocks

Status:	Open	Priority:	Low

Affected version:
Description: I just tried adding an html comment in a wiki text and it got escaped (the minus sign was transformed to &lt;);
<pre>&lt;!-- This is a comment --&gt;</pre>
I also tried adding notextile tags, but the text is still escaped
<pre>&lt;notextile&gt;&lt;!-- This is also a comment --&gt;&lt;/notextile&gt;</pre>
I've found "this old redmine issue": http://www.redmine.org/issues/86 in which they fixed the problem for an old version of RedCloth. I was wondering whether that issue could be ported back to RedCloth3.rb .
Thanks!

You can grab this "plugin":https://github.com/edavis10/redmine\_wiki\_comment\_macro and use the macros for adding HTML comments. Either "this version":https://github.com/edavis10/redmine\_wiki\_comment\_macro/tree/35bed2bbe29f500d6df07079d073b779882070c9 for ChiliProject 1.x to 2.x or the current master for ChiliProject 3.0. It's what we use here to add hidden notes to pages.
